WALT: To make a prediction

Today we are going to be predicting.

This is the front cover of the book we are reading this half term. Just from the small area you can see, we would like to make a prediction about what is going to happen in the book.

Make sure you use the evidence you can see to help you predict.

Start your sentence with I predict...

And don't forget to use because

If we reveal some more of the cover does this change your answer?

Post your predictions on dojo!
