October 2024

Dear Parents/Carers of children in Years 1 to 6,

Round Hill EDI (Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion) Champions Club

I am pleased to inform you that the EDI Champions Club will resume after the half-term holiday. The club will take place on Tuesdays during lunchtime from 12:30 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. Children will be able to enjoy an early "clubs" lunch at 12:00 p.m., whether they have a school meal or a packed lunch.

The role of an EDI Champion is a significant responsibility and training is provided. This training is designed to enhance pupils' communication and interpersonal skills while allowing them to explore ways to support other children at Round Hill. Upon completing the training, children will be awarded a lanyard and certificate. The lanyards indicate that these children are trained and approachable for help, and staff will also recognize them. Each week, we will cover a new theme or focus and the timetable for the year can be found at the bottom of the EDI page on the school website.

The role of an EDI Champion includes:

- Being a peer mentor for pupils who are new to English or new to school.
- Supporting other children during break and lunch times.
- Acting as a role model for other pupils.
- Conducting tours of the school for new families and children.
- Raising awareness of Fundamental British Values.
- Promoting equality, diversity, and inclusion at Round Hill.
- Using their first language to communicate with others, where applicable.
- Raising the profile of multilingualism within the school.
- Reminding others about key religious and cultural festivals throughout the year.
- Designing our EDI logo for the school website, badges, and displays.

If, after discussing it with your child, they would like to become an EDI Champion, please complete the consent form below. If your child was an EDI Champion last year and would like to continue, please resubmit the permission form below. Please complete this by Friday 18th October 2024.

If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact me. I am very excited about this opportunity and hope your child will take part.

Yours faithfully

Mrs Bond
