

The Round Hill Rose

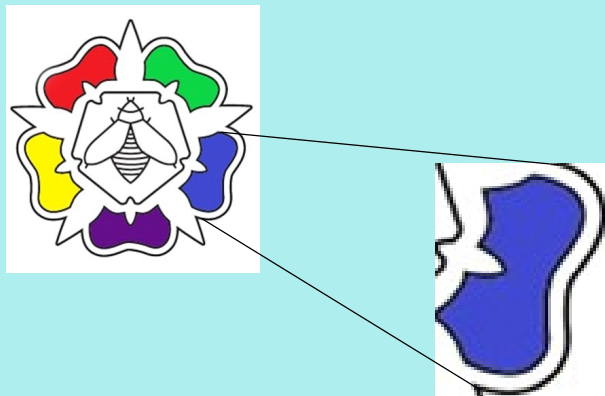

We know that each coloured petal on our rose has a special meaning.
Can you remember the meaning of any?

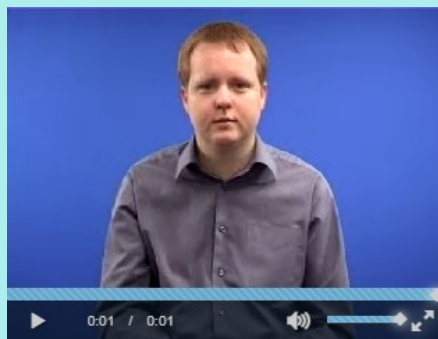

This week we will be learning about the blue petal. Can you spot it?

The blue petal means dreaming. Have you heard this word before?

Dreaming is about imagining things.

Here is how to use British Sign Language to sign dream:

Dreaming on our Round Hill Rose means that we can imagine ourselves doing anything. We can do whatever we want to do if we try hard enough. There is always something new for us to learn.

Dreaming

At Round Hill, we aim high.

We love learning and we know that all of us can learn new things. We understand that none of us will ever stop learning and developing.

Let's listen to a book about dreaming big for the future.

What are your hopes and dreams?

These children are all reflecting.
