

The Round Hill Rose

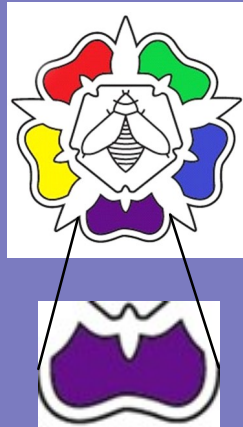

We know that each coloured petal on our rose has a special meaning.
Can you remember the meaning of any?

This week we will be learning about the purple petal. Can you spot it?

The purple petal means together. Have you heard this word before?

Working together is about cooperating with other people.

Here is how to use British Sign Language to sign together:

Being together means that we work well with others because we are kind and cooperative. We think about how other people feel and we look after them. We enjoy working with other people and sharing things with them. We let other people help us and we are a great team.

What do you do when you want to get better at something?

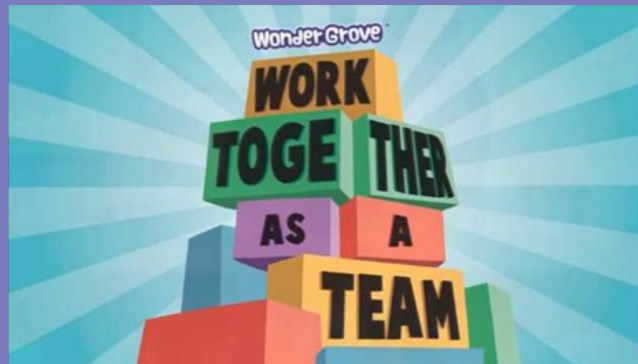

Together

At Round Hill, we know that
