

All families argue...

Reducing Parental Conflict
East Midlands

but what's the impact on children?

Are you a professional who works with children or families?

Recognising the impact of harmful parental conflict on children and young people, and the importance of early identification & intervention, we provide a series of two free online training for Nottinghamshire practitioners and professionals. For information & registration:

Part One: Relationships Really Matter –

Reducing Parental Conflict Awareness Training

[<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/591310273947>] (1 hr) is the link to the training on the topic of parental conflict itself, resources you can signpost to families and ways to talk about relationships with families.

Part Two: Relationships Really Matter –

Reducing Parental Conflict Resources Training

[<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/591410102537>] (1.5 hr) is the link to the training on RPC awareness and various free handy resources and support for practitioners, including OnePlusOne (OPO). After the training, participants will get more useful resources and support, and will become more ready to talk to families about their relationships.

** An in-person training on resources is to be run at Retford Family Hub on 6/11 (Monday) (9:30 – 11:00 am)

[<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/681527124977>]