

Formerly Helen O'Grady Drama Academy.
New name, new logo, same GREAT programme.

DEVELOPING CONFIDENCE, COMMUNICATION AND CREATIVITY

TRIAL
CLASSES
AVAILABLE

If your child would benefit from building their self-esteem, learning to speak clearly and confidently in public, and developing their social interaction skills, then act now!

At Drama Kids, the world's largest drama academy, our developmental curriculum has been perfected over 40 years to support the development of children's confidence and communication skills in a fun, engaging and creative environment.

Our weekly classes are an hour long and cater for students aged 4 – 11 years.

About Drama Kids

- * International Academy established in 1979, with over 100,000 students attend classes worldwide each week
- * All staff possess enhanced DBS checks and undertake regular safeguarding training
- * All teachers are trained in our professional curriculum and follow structured lesson plans
- * Opportunities for student to perform on stage and take part in plays

We provide an inclusive environment in which each student is given the opportunity to grow and develop. We don't hold auditions and no experience is necessary.

We offer payment plans and discounts for siblings.
Most importantly, our classes are lots of fun!
