

BEESTON TALES

WHERE MYTH, LEGEND AND FOLK TALE COME TO LIFE

Every 3rd Wednesday of the month

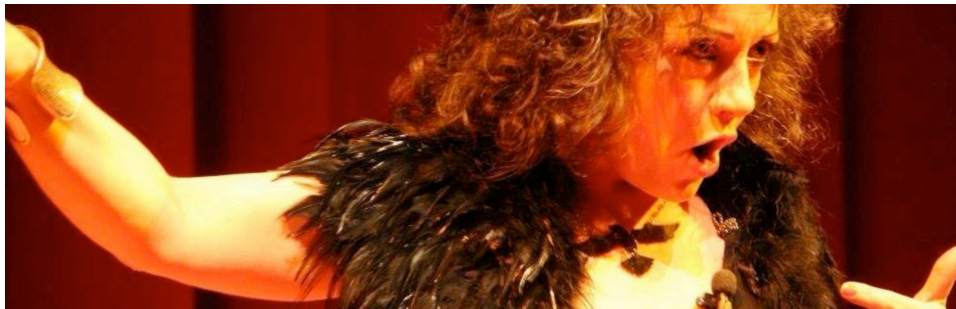

*There is a hypnotic feel to the tales:
you're back round that prehistoric campfire again, rapt.
Matt Turpin, LeftLion.*

September 17: Mythcelium with Katrice Horsley

The world is seen through the eyes of an ancient tree, whose roots are pushed into the past, whose trunk is in the ever-present and whose branches arch and lean towards the possible future. Enmeshed within it are old stories that will sing in your blood, long after the listening.

Oct 15: Queen of Between with Lucy Lill & Sarah Liisa Wilkinson

What happens when the goddess of childbirth crosses her legs? When you're bound above chaos with golden threads? When the weight of your grief means you can't walk on? When you're neither living or dead so you don't fit in? When you're... stuck? That's when you need Hecate: Queen of Between, many-shaped and multi-tasking goddess of birth, death, witches, weasels, hellhounds, crossroads, thresholds and ghosts.

Nov 19: The Godmother & Other Legends with Julian Garner

True stories of growing up in a secret society in 1950s and 60s England from an award-winning British playwright. Julian's plays have been widely performed in Europe, North America and beyond. The Godmother & Other Legends is his debut as a live storyteller.
