Dear Parents and Carers,

Thank you for engaging with our Book Bus and showing such enthusiasm for your child's reading journey and for reading within our school community. From sales made on the bus, we received over £400 to spend on books for our school library. Your involvement is invaluable — reading is not just a skill, it is a gateway to lifelong learning and enjoyment.

Reading is central to your child's success, and the conversations you have about books at home make a real difference. When you share stories and discuss characters, themes, and ideas, you are helping your child develop vocabulary, comprehension and critical thinking.

Following on from positive feedback and conversations during Parents' Evening about reading, we wanted to share a useful tool you may choose to use at home to help to support your child's engagement with their home reading: <https://ourfp.org/supporting-rah/book-chat-reading-with-your-child/>

The videos in the link provide ideas for how to structure conversations about books, developing children's understanding and nurturing a love of reading.

"Reading aloud fosters positive attitudes, enhances pupils' motivation to read and develops vocabulary and other knowledge, including of books, authors and genres that they might not choose to read for themselves."

Your support makes a real difference. By sharing books and talking about them, you are helping your child develop language, comprehension and a lifelong love of reading.

Thank you for your continued support — and happy reading!

Best wishes
