

BEESTON TALES

WHERE MYTH, LEGEND AND FOLK TALE COME TO LIFE

Every 3rd Wednesday of the month

*There is a hypnotic feel to the tales:
you're back round that prehistoric campfire again, rapt.
Matt Turpin, LeftLion.*

17th December: A Dance with the Minotaur's Sister - with Stephe Brittain

Join storyteller Steph Brittain, following Ariadne's journey as it unravels through the maze of love, betrayal, loss, joy and the bulls and the bees.. a retelling of an ancient Greek myth through the eyes of Ariadne and her brother the Minotaur. A story of a bull, a boy, his sister and what happens when a hero leaves.

21st Jan: The Stealing of the Sun and Moon - Nick Hennessy

A performance that journeys into the deep, snow-filled forests of the Finnish far north, where the river of the underworld flows dark and fast, and the summer sun shines just a little too bright. Expect a remarkable performance of elemental epic.

'Spellbinding' SouthBank, London

'Compelling' The Times

Feb 18th: Dutchpot Stories with Jordan Campbell

A first visit to Beeston Tales for this highly recommended young storyteller - "stories that are ever changing yet strike straight to the heart of what it means to be human in this world."
